MEDIA RELEASE

DATE: 24 FEBRUARY 2017

TO: ALL NEWS EDITORS AND JOURNALISTS

WARNING: JOB SCAM

The Greater Tzaneen Municipality would like to warn current and potential job seekers of an ongoing scam where scammers send an sms to an applicant congratulating them on being shortlisted for a job recently advertised by the municipality.

The message will contain the job title and job number similar to the one advertised by the municipality. The sms is purported as coming from MH Maake the Human Resources Manager.

Please consider the following before responding to any message regarding a job in the municipality.

- The municipality will not request any money from an applicant before or after the interview.
- Shortlisted applicants are informed via telephone by an official from Human Resources with the date, time and venue of the interview.
- The municipality does not send sms to applicants informing them of an interview.
- GTM does not make use of the recruitment agencies.
- Also note that application forms are available in our municipal offices in Tzaneen and on our website (www.greatertzaneen.gov.za).
- To confirm if you are indeed shortlist contact HR at 015 307 8384.

We urge members of the community to be careful with their money. There is no single individual that you can pay to secure employment in the municipality as the recruitment process consist of various stages and involves various stakeholders such Management, HR and Labour Unions.

Please note that any promise for a job in exchange for money is scam and must be reported to the authorities immediately, please also alert our HR on 015 307 8382.

You can also call HR on 015 307 8006 to confirm receipt of your application after the closing date.

For Immediate release
