

COUNCILLOR LAMBASTS TRIBAL TALK

Councillor Margaret Letsoalo, a member of the executive committee of the Greater Tzaneen Municipality has lambasted a speaker who used tribal connotations when raising a concern during a Mayoral imbizo today at Mhlava Cross.

The speaker asked why ward 32 was led by a Pedi Councillor instead of a Tsonga speaking Councillor. Letsoalo said it was disappointing that after 1994 people were still divided across tribal lines. She said the dawn of democracy signaled the end of tribalism and people should be embarrassed to use tribalism in any circumstance.

She said those aiming at sowing divisions usually use tribal connotations to incite people
