

GTM TO HOST PROVINCIAL SAFETY & SECURITY SUMMMIT

The Greater Tzaneen Municipality will host the Limpopo Provincial Safety and Security summit on 28 and 29 November 2019 at Karibu Leisure Resort.

The Minister of Police General Bheki Cele , his deputy Cassel Mathale and Limpopo Premier Stanley Chupu Mathabatha are expected to attend the summit.

Other dignitaries expected to attend the gathering are MEC for Transport and Safety Dickson Masemola, Police Commissioner General Khehla Sitole, Mopani Executive Mayor Pule Shai and Greater Tzaneen Mayor Maripe Mangena.

Minister Cele will deliver the keynote address on Thursday with General Sitole presenting a crime overview of the past 5 years as well as stability issues. .

The summit come just a few days after a police officer shot and killed his police officer wife in Tzaneen before turning the gun unto himself.

The summit also follows an incident on Sunday where 21-year old Precious Ramabulana, a Capricorn TVET college student was raped and stabbed 52 times on Sunday.

The summit will focus on issues such as rural safety, youth crime prevention, community policing and safety, situational crime prevention, improving the criminal justice system, trans border and organised crime, and social fabric crime.
