

HUNDREDS GATHER TO PRAY FOR RAIN

Today - Hundreds of people have gathered at Nkowankowa Stadium for the Mopani District Prayer Day. The prayer day is aimed at ending drought and combating gender based violence. Dams all over Mopani are drying up and residents are feeling the pinch. Tzaneen Dam which supplies water to Tzaneen, the economic heartbeat of Mopani is now at less than 7%.

Amongst the guests from the religious fraternity are pastors, bishops and prophets. Pastor Dr. Shipalana delivered the main sermon and led everyone on a prayer.

Deputy Police Minister, Cassel Mathale is the most senior government figure in attendace. Mathale is flanked by MEC for Safety and Transport Dickson Masemola, MDM Executive Mayor Councillor Pule Shai, Greater Tzaneen Municipality Mayor, Councillor Maripe Mangena and Mayor of Baphalaborwa Municipality, Councillor Malatji.

There are also royal leaders from all over Mopani led by the Chairperson of Mopani House of Traditional Leaders, Hosi Nwamitwa II. The is large contingent from Mhlava Royal House led by Princess Nkakasana.

Guests are entertained by Go-Explo and Pastor Rudolph Mabasa.