

MAYOR HANDS OVER NEW HOUSE

Sunday, 24 November 2019 - Mayor Maripe Mangena today, handed over a newly built house to the Malungana family of Lusaka Village. Mario Malungana, his wife, six children and three grand children lived in shacks.

The Malunganis now have a two bedroom house with kitchen and lounge courtesy of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church Nkowankowa Parish.

Mayor Maripe Mangena who was flanked by the Pastor Mandela of Evangelical Presbyterian and the ward Councillor for ward 18 Norman Mukansi thanked the Church for their contribution to development.

Speaking to GTM Bulletin, Ali Malungana (18), the fourthborn in the family said "the family had three shacks which leaked whenever it rained. He said when it rained they had to spend the night on their feet because they slept on the floor.

The Malunganis don't only have a new house, their house is furnished with new couches, a TV, a stove, fridge, kitchen unit and two double beds.

SASSA also donated food parcels to the family.
