

PROVINCIAL SAFETY AND SECURITY SUMMIT

The two day Provincial Safety and Security Summit currently underway at Karibu Leisure Resort reflected achievements and challenges in the fight against crime.

MEC Dickson Masemola announced that the police have arrested the suspect in the raping and stabbing of Precious Ramabulwana, a student at the Capricorn TVET College.

Police Minister Bheki Cele, his deputy Cassel Mathale and the Premier could not make it. At least four MECs graced the occasion. MEC for Education Polly Boshielo, MEC for Agriculture Nandi Ndalane, MEC of Roads, Public Works and Infrastructure Monica Mochadi as well the MEC for Transport and Safety, Dickson Masemola who was also acting as the Premier.

The event was attended by the Police top brass including the National Police Commissioner, General Khehla Sitole. Cluster Commanders and Station Commanders from across the province also attended the summit.
