

MEDIA REVIEW (02 SEPTEMBER 2022)

PUBLICATION: BULLETIN

HEADLINE: TSONGA QUEEN NDAVI MAKES GRAND ENTRANCE

REVIEW: The newly crowned Miss SA Ndavi Nokeri was welcomed in Limpopo by the Limpopo government, Department of Sport, Art and Culture as well as Mopani district and Greater Tzaneen Municipality for three days. The activities started on Friday 26th August at Polokwane and the other two days were celebrated in Tzaneen. It was concluded by a festival at her home village Gavaza.

STATUS Positive

INTERVERTION None

PUBLICATION: LETABA HERALD

HEADLINE: NDAVI'S HOMECOMING A GREAT SUCCESS

REVIEW: The newly crowned Miss SA Ndavi Nokeri was welcomed in Limpopo by the Limpopo government, Department of Sport, Art and Culture as well as Mopani district and Greater Tzaneen Municipality for three days. The activities started on Friday 26th August at Polokwane and the other two days were celebrated in Tzaneen, at Nkuna tribal, a Gala Dinner at Tzaneen Country lodge as well as a festival at Gavaza village where she was born and raised.

STATUS: Positive

INTERVERTION: None

PUBLICATION: LETABA HERALD

HEADLINE: FREEDOM FRONT CRITICISES EVENT

REVIEW: The Freedom Front Plus Councilor in the GTM Andre Moss, criticizes the overspending for the welcoming of our Miss South Africa. The PR Councilor says the budget for the event should have been discussed in council before. He further said he will direct questions about the approval of the budget to Council.

STATUS: Negative

INTERVERTION: Council