

The leadership of the municipality is currently meeting with the Delegation of the National Council of Provinces discussing the state of governance in the municipality. There are also members of provincial legislature

