

Day 1/2 of the GTM Library programme

Christine Owen-Hamman, the Library Manager says “the aim of the programme is to introduce the kids to the library, teach them its importance as well as keeping them busy during school holidays.

On today’s programme the kids were crafting a crocodile and a pig.

The free two day programme will continue again tomorrow from 09:00- 12:00, parents are more than welcome to bring their kids to enjoy the art and crafts.

On the pictures are the kids with Mapula Nkwana and Comfort Mathebula the Liberians assisting the kids during the programme.
